

Haulage Exclusion List

The following materials must not be carried in bulk tipping vehicles and bulk tankers used for the transportation of goods covered by the Code of Practice for Road Haulage

- Toxic & corrosive materials and any packaging used for these materials or any materials (eg. timber) treated with these products.
- Radio-active materials
- Livestock including poultry, also including their carcasses
- Animal & poultry wastes
- Manures, litter and composts
- Mammalian protein, including any feed containing these materials (milk & milk products are permitted to be carried)
- Mineral clays which have been used for detoxification purposes
- Cereal & other seeds treated with toxic dressing (excluding bagged or packaged seed)
- Glass (including cullet)
- Hide treated with tanning substances, including its waste
- Scrap metal, including fragmented metal and “frag rubber”
- Solid urban waste, such as household waste
- All wastes obtained from the various phases of the urban, domestic and industrial waste water treatment process.
- Untreated waste from eating places, except food stuffs of vegetable origin considered unsuitable for human consumption for reasons of freshness
- Bituminous products and other products not responsive to normal detergent cleaning
- Processed animal protein, eg. meat and bone meal, bone meal, meat meal, blood meal, dried plasma and other blood products, hoof meal, horn meal, poultry offal meal, feather meal, dry greaves and mixtures, feedingstuffs, feed additives and premixes containing these products.
- Asbestos or materials containing asbestos.
- Pharmaceutical Waste